

Troy Colquitt, Council Member Ward 3

Mr. Colquitt is retired from more than one career. He was an aviation electrician and member of the fighter squadron thirty-two of the US Navy. He also helped construct the Richard B. Russell Dam as an ironwork supervisor and was a real estate appraiser for twelve years. In addition to those careers, he spent thirty years in the granite industry. His work in the industry involved designing, fabrication, and erection of buildings and equipment.

He and his wife Estelle have two children, Chuck Colquitt and Tracey Colquitt Rousey. Mr. Colquitt is a member of Antioch Baptist Church and decided to become a councilman in 2003 to give back to the neighborhood and community in which he has lived for thirty years.
