Council Member Colquitt has been serving his citizens since January, 2004. He is currently serving his fourth term as Council Member. He is retired from more than one career. He was an aviation electrician and member of the fighter squadron thirty-two of the US Navy. He also helped construct the Richard B. Russell Dam as an ironwork supervisor and was a real estate appraiser for twelve years. In addition to those careers, he spent thirty years in the granite industry. His work in the industry involved designing, fabrication, and erection of buildings and equipment. He became a Council Member to give back to the neighborhood and community in which he has lived for fifty years.

During his term of office, he served as the City's Mayor Pro tempore in 2008, 2013 and 2018. He received the Certificate of Distinction award January 23, 2016 for completing 204 hours of training through the Georgia Municipal Association's Municipal Training Institute.

Council Member Colquitt and his wife Estelle have two children, Chuck Colquitt and Tracy Colquitt Rousey. They reside at 80 Reese Street, Elberton, Georgia. He enjoys spending his time farming for his mental and physical exercise. He and his family are members of Antioch Baptist Church located in the Nickville community.
