Council Member Parham is serving his first term as Council Member. He is co-owner of P & J Small Engines in Elberton.

The Georgia General Assembly passed O.C.G.A. 36-45-1 requiring all persons elected as a member of a municipal governing authority to attend and satisfactorily complete a training program specifically designed for newly elected municipal officials. Council Member Parham is registered to attend this training in February. He will then work on obtaining his Certificate of Recognition award once he completes 42 hours of training through the Georgia Municipal Association's Municipal Training Institute.

Council Member Parham is married to Mia. They reside at 162 Springdale Road, Elberton, Georgia. They are members of Bethel E Church in Elberton.
