

CITY OF ELBERTON
REGULAR MEETING OF THE MAYOR AND COUNCIL
Monday, December 1, 2025 – 5:30 p.m.

Pursuant to due call and notice thereof the meeting of the Mayor and Council convened at 5:30 p.m. on Monday, December 1, 2025 in the Council Chambers of the Municipal Building, 203 Elbert Street with Mayor Graves presiding.

Present were: Council Members Butler, Burton, Colquitt, Prince and Parham; City Manager Eavenson, City Clerk Churney and City Attorney Jenkins.

Mayor Graves called the meeting to order and led the assembly in the Pledge of Allegiance. City Attorney Jenkins led the assembly in prayer.

Council Member Parham motioned to approve the minutes of the November 3 meeting, seconded by Council Member Butler, and the motion passed unanimously (Butler, Burton, Colquitt, Prince, Parham).

Mr. Mac Hughes addressed Council with regard to the upcoming Martin Luther King Parade and festivities.

Mr. Jerry Spivey of Spivey Financial Group, informed Council that he had the opportunity to present an offer to the City of Elberton to provide medical benefits at a significant savings beginning January, 2026. However, the existing plan's renewal period is not until June 1st. He stated he was still interested in working with the city at its next renewal period.

Council Member Parham placed Ordinance 2229 on second reading to amend the comprehensive zoning map, as follows:

ORDINANCE 2229

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE COMPREHENSIVE ZONING MAP OF THE CITY OF ELBERTON; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

The Ordinance was read in its entirety at the November meeting. Therefore, Council Member Parham motioned to waive the reading, seconded by Council Member Burton and the motion to waive passed unanimously. City Manager Eavenson read the heading of the Ordinance. Council Member Parham motioned to adopt the Ordinance, seconded by Council Member Burton and the motion passed unanimously.

Council Member Parham placed Ordinance 2230 on first reading to amend Chapter 6, Animals. July 1, 2025, the Georgia General Assembly enacted House Bill 331, codified as O.C.G.A. 4-11-10.1, which prohibits the transfer of dogs, cats, and domestic rabbits in certain public and commercial locations throughout the state, as follows:

ORDINANCE 2230

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE CITY OF ELBERTON CODE OF ORDINANCES, CHAPTER 6, ANIMALS; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

City Manager Eavenson read the Ordinance in its entirety.

Council Member Butler motioned to adopt the Consent Agenda, seconded by Council Member Prince and the motion passed unanimously (Butler, Burton, Colquitt, Parham, Prince).

- Approved the expenditures that exceed the city manager's purchasing authority.

CITY CLERK:

The Georgia Department of Audits and Accounts (DOAA) manages the annual Immigration and Reform Act Collection System reporting for local governments to ensure compliance with E-Verify and reporting mandates. The City of Elberton and the Downtown Development Authority has completed the submission process for 2025.

Tax and Expenditures Data (TED) Center refers to House Bill 122 which is operated by the Carl Vinson Institute of Government. The bill requires governmental accountability and transparency by submitting annual reports (budget report, asset forfeiture report and financial report). The City of Elberton has completed the submission process for 2025.

O.C.G.A. 48-8-122 requires local governments to provide the public with an annual, non-technical report on Special Purpose Local Option Sales Tax (SPLOST) projects. Publication is required in the newspaper no later than December 31 of each year. The City of Elberton's reporting will be published during the week of December 1, 2025.

The Georgia Interlocal Risk Management Agency (GIRMA) performed a property and liability audit on the city's facilities. The purpose for the audit was to provide an opportunity to review and improve risk management practices, identify potential hazardous, and ensure compliance with safety and regulatory standards, thereby minimizing future claims and losses.

BUILDING INSPECTIONS:

- Jason Mooney attended the Planning and Zoning 101: The Basics in Lawrenceville this month. The training provided an introduction to fundamental concepts of land use planning and regulation for local governments. The training was conducted by the Carl Vinson Institute of Government at the University of Georgia.
- 514 Elbert Street (formerly Advance Auto Parts) property is still in the construction phase.
- The Elberton Planning Commission will consider 131 E. Railroad Street for recreational vehicle parking at their next meeting on December 15, 2025.
- The department is working on presenting the proposal for rezoning various properties from B-1 zone and IOP zone.
- 310 S. Oliver Street is scheduled for court this month. This property is currently listed on the dilapidated housing listing.
- The department is receiving bids for the abatement and demolition services for 206 S. Oliver Street, 703 Old Mineral Spring Road, 278 Locklin Street and 240 Campbell Street.
